

Academic Success Week 2005
Academic Integrity Quiz
Office of the Vice Provost for Student Success

Test your knowledge of the KU Academic Misconduct Policies

1. The professor has to tell you to do your own work. If he doesn't, he cannot hold you responsible for cheating if you collaborate with others?

True False

2. KU's academic misconduct policies are limited to student academic misconduct.

True False

3. You do not have to cite the source of an idea: you only cite quotes.

True False

4. Copying your friend's lab results and turning it in as yours is not really cheating if you did the experiment and just didn't have time to write up the results.

True False

5. It is fine to change your lab data to what you know it should be even if the experiment didn't go as planned.

True False

6. Students with a verifiable medical crisis of a relative or friend are automatically excused from being present for scheduled examinations and tests.

True False

7. You know that someone is looking at your test to check his answers. You aren't committing academic misconduct because it is your test.

True False

All answers are false. For the KU rules about academic misconduct, check out University Senate Rules and Regulations at <http://www.ku.edu/~unigov/usrr.html>.