Project Specifics

Project Title:

The Big Event Student Leader Learning Outcomes Project

Purpose of the project:

The Union Programs Student Leader Learning Outcomes Project provides a universal method and tool for staff to use with student leaders in student organizations, programs, or activities to help in the assessment and documentation of enhanced learning in relation to the students' leadership experiences.

Student leaders in the Big Event will be assessed on their knowledge of the six stated learning outcomes for the Union Programs Office.

Assessment method(s):

Pre/Post Self-Assessment of the learning outcomes.

Staff contact(s):

JJ O'Toole-Curran: jjotoole@ku.edu

Department: KU Memorial Unions

Tom Johnson: tvj@ku.edu

Timeline/frequency:

Timeline: September Pre-Self-Assessment

April Post Self-Assessment

Pre Self-Assessment: As student leaders enter their new positions, each leader will be administered the pre self-assessment.

Post Self-Assessment: As student leaders exit their positions, each leader will complete a post self-assessment.

Population/Sample: 11 students

The Big Event student leaders

Special challenges to this assessment:

Finding ways to incorporate conversations and activities about the learning outcomes during the course of their leadership year. This is especially important so students don't forget about the learning outcomes from the pre-assessment to the post-assessment.

Use to inform current practice:

The assessment results will be used in our daily contact and advisement of the student leaders. The assessment results aid in the improvement of the events/programs offered by the student organizations.

The assessment results are used to inform advisors and leaders in setting direction for training sessions with leaders.

Plans for reporting results:

Share results with Student Affairs to be reported in Annual Report.

Share results with KUMU Corporation board members, KUMU Management Team, Union Programs Professional Staff and Students.
