

Student Affairs is committed to engaging the KU community in services and programs that make learning possible. The information presented below highlights our work for October 2018.

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION & EDUCATION CENTER

SAPEC hosted the 'me too' at KU awareness event featuring movement founder Tarana Burke with more than 800 individuals in attendance.

STUDENT MONEY MANAGEMENT SERVICES

SMMS had a total of 56 appointments, an increase of more than 69% from October 2017.

KU MEMORIAL UNION

KU Dining Services landed at #49 on The Daily Meal's 75 Best Colleges for Food in the Nation list. This is KU Dining Services' first appearance on The Daily Meal's list.

HILLTOP CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Hilltop Child Development Center had a total enrollment of 308 children, an increase of more than 5% from October 2017.

STUDENT CONDUCT & COMMUNITY STANDARDS

Based on National Hazing Prevention Week Survey responses, 85% of students would anonymously report any experienced hazing through SCCS' hazing website.

KU RECREATION SERVICES

KU Recreation Services held its first Yoga at Potter's Lake event with a total of 227 participants.

COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

In October, CAPS assisted a total of 616 students, an increase of more than 18% from 2017.

WATKINS HEALTH SERVICES

As part of its Drug Take Back initiative, WHS Pharmacy collected 22 pounds of outdated or unneeded medication, compared to 54 pounds in 2017.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT & LEADERSHIP CENTER

After attending Student Officer Training Day, 100% of participants had a better understanding of marketing strategies to use in advertising their organizations and events.

After attending the KU Quest: Queer Empowerment Summit, 95% of students felt confident in their ability to advocate for themselves and others when facing adversity related to gender identity, expression, and/or sexuality.
